WARRIORS CLOSE HOME SEASON

Loyola Warriors will make their last home stand of the season this weekend when they play host to two OSL teams in games that will decide Coupe de Québec and league laurels.

Friday night at 8:30 P.M. the opposition will be provided by Bishop's University Gaiters, currently in fourth place and probable foes of Loyola in the first round of the play-offs. Loyola defeated Bishop's 5-2 in their only other encounter earlier this year.

Saturday afternoon at 1:00 P.M. Coach Tony Heffernan will bring his University of Sherbrooke squad in for a game that will decide first place. Sherbrooke is undefeated in league play, as is Loyola, the two having tied 4-4 back in November.

Sherbrooke is coming off an impressive 10-4 win over McGill Redmen, while Loyola recently demolished University of Montreal Carabins 12-3 in their annual Carnival Cup set-to.

When the Warriors take to the ice on Saturday afternoon, it will mark the last time that Mike Lowe will play at Loyola Arena. The end of a great college hockey career is sadly approaching. Not since the halcyon days of Mike Labrosse have Loyola fans seen a player of this ilk. Oldtimers around the Loyola hockey scene rate Lowe right behind Paul Haynes as the college's all-time hockey great.

Lowe, a native of Lachute, P.Q., is having his finest season [illegible] togs and at latest count had 43 goals and 30 assists in 26 games, [illegible] country. He was chosen All-Star left winger in the OSL the past three seasons and appears a shoo-in to repeat again this year.

Also lacing it up for their last home appearances will be defencemen Bill Doyle and John Donnelly, centres John Huttón and Alain Tremblay, and wingers Danny McCann, Mike Thomassin and Bruce Wickham. With the loss of these eight seniors, a big rebuilding job looms for next year.

Dave Draper was pleased with the 12-3 victory over University of Montreal. "That second period when we scored eight goals without a reply was our best effort of the year, and indicates what the team can do when they want to."

Draper is having his most successful season yet since coming to Loyola three years ago, with his squad at 22 wins, 3 losses, and 2 ties, with 4 games left on the regular schedule. In three years his teams have won 70, lost 15, and tied 4. In the latest CIAU rankings, Toronto is ranked number 1, followed by Loyola in the runner-up spot.
